SCOOPED.

The L. & N. Buys Out the I. A. & T. Road, Despite the Clarksville Citizens.

CLARKSVILLE, TENN., Aug. 15.—(Special.)—The Louisville and Nashville has scooped the Indiana, Alabama & Texas Railroad. The following order was received by Mr. Mulligan, at 10 o'clock this morning:

"Office of the Indiana, Alabama & Texas Railroad Company, Aug. 14, 1886.—W. T. Mulligan, Secretary and Treasurer, and to all officers, agents and employees engaged in operating said road: I having resigned as president and a majority of the directors and both vice-presidents having resigned, and others having been elected to fill their places, you are authorized and directed to turn over and surrender to our successors or their orders the full and peaceable possession of said road with engines, cars and other property, books, papers, stationery, rights, franchise and privileges pertaining thereto.

"E. C. Gaudin, Late President."

The new company is composed of the following: F. P. Gracey, president; T. Herndon, vice-president; Directors, T. D. Luckett, J. T. Edwards; Gray Childers, secretary and treasurer.

The news soon spread, and the town went mad with excitement and rage. Good Christians forgot their prayer-books, resorting to language too strong to be repeated on wire, in expressing the indignation felt against all concerned. It was fortunate that Mr. Gordon was not here. The prayers of the Women's Temperance Union and Young Men's Christian Association combined would not save him from the wrath of the people. The excitement is intense and the end is not yet. Citizens are going from house to house spreading the news, and men gather in bunches to give vent to language not fit for a Sunday school. There will be a roiling meeting to-morrow night at the courthouse and people connected with the outrage won't feel at home in the assembly. Of course the Louisville & Nashville is the purchaser, and is supposed to be out $200,000. But the Louisville & Nashville is not out of trouble yet by a long sight. Citizens are plucky, determined to fight to the bitter end, stopping not short of a competing road. They propose to levy a sufficient tax to enable the Chesapeake & Ohio to come in. The meeting to-morrow night will be a concert of a nice lot of chin music.

KELLY'S KY.

Aug. 16, 1886.

Oh! how hot and how dry! We have had a few showers lately at night, but they were very light and did but little good. The parched earth, the drooping vegetation calls for rain. All through the long days the blazing sun pours down his flood of fire and the sickening corn droops its wilting blades and begs for rain, cool, refreshing rain. Rain, rain, Lord send us rain! The "punkin" vines are nearly all dead now.

News is scarce now on account of getting its wings singed off before it can get a mile.

We would compare the heat thus: Positive, hot; comparative, hotter; superlative, "Is this hot enough for you?"

We would ask: Has the hotly contested election anything to do with this superabundance of calorific?

W. H. Armstrong has returned from Chillicothe, Ohio.
